

Merry Christmas

From all of us at...

Dunklin Memorial Church

"For God loved the world so much that... (Mary) gave birth to her first son, wrapped Him in cloths and laid Him in a manger... This very day in David's town your Savior was born – Christ the Lord!...so that everyone who believes in Him may not die but have eternal life."

- Luke 2:7 and John 3:16

The Living Sermon
(Show Me)
Written by "Red" Fox
8/8/1931 – 12/5/2021

I'd rather see a sermon than hear one any day.
I'd rather one would walk with me than merely tell the way.
The eye is a better pupil and more willing than the ear.
Fine counsel is confusing, but an example is always clear.
The best of all the preachers are men who live their career.
For to see God put in action is what everybody needs.

I soon can learn to do it, if you'll let me see it done.
I can watch your hands in action; your tongue too fast may run.
The lectures you deliver may be very fine and true,
But I'd rather get my lesson by observing what you do;
I may not understand the high advice you give,
But there's no misunderstanding how you act and how you live.

What a legacy that has been left behind for all of us. To know Red is to love him. His commitment, dedication, and loyalty to Dunklin and the men that have come here over the years is without comparison. If there was a man that we could point to as an example from the generation before us, Red would be that man. There was never a task that he would not lay his hands to. Literally, he never avoided the dirtiest of jobs, but rather dove head first in whatever "situation" surfaced. No matter the time of day or night, he was available and faithful to bring about a resolution despite the duration. Servanthood is the word that would best characterize his life while here at Dunklin.

He not only was a hard worker, but he was a loyal friend and brother in Christ. He loved the Lord and His people with actions that far outweighed empty verbal promises. Gratitude for what the Lord did for him, along with a tender affection towards Brother Mickey, emanated from him. He was "one of a kind" for sure; at first meeting him, one may think he was a little rough, but through that exterior was a soft heart that loved and cared abundantly. He was the greatest as Matthew 23:11 points out, "The greatest among you will be your servant."

"We will miss you greatly and you will be forever remembered, Red!"
